Walk in their Boots: The Cowboy Life July 20-23, 2010

A vacation filled with the hidden treasures in northwest Nebraska. Experience the majestic beauty of northwest Nebraska, with pine trees, spectacular sunrises and sunsets, abundant wildlife. This territory is rich with many facets of American history! So join us and explore Walk in their Boots: The Cowboy Life.

If you have ever dreamed of being a cowboy or a cowgirl, then Walk in their Boots: The Cowboy Life will help to make those dreams come true. This program has been designed for a family vacation, but has also been tailored to individuals and couples that want to experience a cowboy's life.

Step inside the boots of a cowboy and experience the following:

- Roping
- Tack identification and maintenance
- Horse identification
- Team driving with wagons
- Dutch oven cooking
- Barn Dancing

Let's not forget the opportunity to sit around a campfire and tell stories and listen to songs.

Comfortable accommodations:

Traditionally cowboys sleep under the stars. As a modern cowboy, you can relax in the comfort of air-conditioned rooms and soft beds at Chadron State College's Edna Work resident hall. Edna Work Hall has forty-eight suite-style rooms and is one of the finest student housing facilities in Nebraska. The suites feature a living room between the bedrooms, each of which includes a complete bathroom. The bedrooms are equipped with two twin beds and a dresser and the living rooms are equipped with chairs for your comfort. Edna Work Wing offers a TV lounge and recreation area, study room, kitchen and laundry facilities.

Fabulous Meals:

You're on vacation, so we'll do the cooking. We will provide you with three square meals every day, plus a couple of snacks to keep your strength up. If you have any special dietary needs, please let us know. We will do our best to accommodate your needs. Most of our meals will be served outdoors.

This vacation package can be yours for:

$445.00	(5 days/4 nights, one person, double occupancy/on campus housing)
$542.00	(5 days/4 nights, one person, single occupancy/on campus housing)
$396.00	(5 days, one person, commuter)

Payment due by June 15, 2010. For additional information, please feel free to contact the CSC Conferencing Office at 1-800-CHADRON, ext. 6380, or visit our Web site at www.csc.edu/conferencing for other contact information.
